FINANCE AND MINING.

What the Inter-State Law is Doing.

HOW LOS ANGELES IS BOOMED.

Real Estate—Bank Receipts—Ore and Bullion Output—From the Mines.

The week has been one of even trade.
The only features have been the organization of the Board of Trade into working order, and the continued activity in real estate circles. The main deals of the week not quoted previously will be found in another part of THE SUNDAY HERALD.

No transfers of local stocks are quoted. Gas stock is offered at $75.
Dun's review of trade, under date of the 16th, says: "When Carlyle said it would be found impossible to get wise laws from the suffrage of sundry millions, 'mostly fools,' he seems to have had a provision of the Inter-State Commerce Act. The chief feature of the week, in commerce and industry, is the embarrassment resulting from this enactment. No one yet knows what its effects will be, but millions who favored it already see that its workings do not help them. The commission has not yet suspended the operation of the short haul clause for northern roads generally, but one United States court has held it not applicable to an Oregon road, and another has ordered a Texas road in the hands of a receiver to discard it if it is not removed. And no one can guess what changes in rates may at any time be made by orders of court, and the Commission. The general effect thus far is to largely increase cost of transportation, and to impede, or arrest distant shipments. Western distributing cities find that it threatens to transfer much of their trade to minor towns.
On the other hand, it helps some people. Thus, manufacturers find that by markets more within their control, and domestic or producers find foreign iron ore practically excluded from many points of large consumption.

Considering the embarrassment from uncertainty as to freights, accounts of trade are surprisingly satisfactory. At many points, it is true, merchants, as yet, think only of the general trade of the year thus far as decidedly better than that of any previous year; at others the present dullness or stagnation is considered but temporary and a most hopeful feeling prevails; but it is the almost universal testimony that retail trade is unusually large. No embarrassment appears in collections, except where real estate or mining speculation locks up all available means, or in some localities where bad roads block business, but in most cases improvement is reported.

L. S. Hills, cashier of the Desert National Bank, has returned from a brief visit to his brother in Los Angeles, and brings some intelligence of what an actual boom resembles. "They are all mad down the river," he said, "for the next thing to it. The rush, activity and go are something marvelous. Rents are 100 per cent higher than in Salt Lake, and despite the number of buildings they are rushing up, there seems to be no overplus of houses. You can drive four or five miles from the center of town, and you will find them laying out city lots in the fields. They build sidewalks of Portland cement and make street crossings just as if the houses were already there, and to look at it it seems as if the buildings were to be constructed somewhere else, and set down in their places bodily. While I was there they staked off a town about ten miles out of the city, marked the prices on the plot and advertised that they would be sold on a certain day, the first corner to have first choice. The line formed twenty-four hours in advance just as they do at the Theatre, and some fellows sold their figure. Most of the buildings being done by eastern people who probably have an invalid in the family, and who are settling in Los Angeles on account of the climate. But they are all real estate mad, and if the day doesn't come when the bottom will fall out of the boom, I shall be a long way out in my reckoning."

Hills did not think there was any foundation here for a trade boom at present; the activity in the real estate market, however, might bring a land boom, he thought, as such things were contagious, and the fever seemed to be mounting.

Ore and Bullion.

The ore and bullion receipts at the various banks in this city for the week ending Saturday, April 23d, amounted to $86,845.06, against $86,112.76 for the week previous. They were reported as follows:

By McCormick & Co.:

Hanauer bullion..... $18,410.00 Silver and lead ores..... 20,970.00 Bannock silver..... 7,000.00 Crescent ore..... 3,350.00

Total..... $49,730.00

By Wells, Fargo & Co.:

Fine bars..... $27,310.33
Ores..... 9,804.73

Total..... $37,115.06

Total shipments for the week..... $86,845.06

The Week's Market.

At Mr. Hanauer's office a quiet week is reported. At Frank Foote's they state receipts of ore have been quite lively from Stockton, Dry Canyon, Bingham and Tintic. Scott & Anderson record a week of fair activity.
Among the brokers there has been but little doing, though the lively feeling in real estate communicates itself more or less to the stock market. Daly has sold at $15.50, the buyer receiving the 25 cent dividend. Apex and Crescent are held firm, owners not caring to dispose of their stock at the present figures.

Anchor.

A gentleman down from the Park said Anchor stock had sold there as high as $8. Six dollars is offered here.

Leading mining men say that within a year Anchor will be on a par with Daly, that they have ore on every level, and that the mine will turn out a veritable Ontario.

Bannock.

Seven thousand dollars forms the week's shipments, which is heavier than for some time previous. Reports from the mill say that they were forced to close down three days recently, owing to the impossibility of communicating with the mine. The road is now open, however, and the snow almost gone, so that no further impediment is likely to occur.

From Bingham.

The Tiewauxie, under the Gibbons' lease, sent down twenty-five tons of ore in three lots, which sold for from $21 to $44 per ton. The Jersey Blue sent down a lot running 50 ounces, and fifteen tons were received from the York mine.

Honoraria.

A lot of 260 tons of ore has been made up and the bottles were in the hands of the assayer last night. It averages 50 in lead and 25 ounces silver, and will go to the Selby Works in California, under the existing contract.

Sampson.

The only news from this mine is that the water is now all out, and work can be pushed to much better advantage.

Bullion-Beck.

Mr. Clawson yesterday sold 140 tons of the output of this mine to Frank Foote, for the Tomichi Valley Works, at Gunnison.

The Buckhorn.

This mine sent in fifty tons of ore during the week. It went 33 in lead and about 24 ounces silver.

Alice.

The last quotation was $1.40.

Stormont.

Twelve hundred shares sold at 11c.
